

NLG INTERNATIONAL COMMITTEE

BOLIVIA DELEGATION

JANUARY 1-----JANUARY 10, 2007

Professor Michael Avery, current NLG President, will head the delegation. The purpose of the Delegation will be to study contemporary legal issues in Bolivia, with a focus on legal measures and reforms directed at social and economic justice. The Delegation hopes to meet with Judges, attorneys, legislators, and organizers from various sectors.

We hope to create a Delegation of individuals who are dedicated to Guild principles, willing to be good listeners and work collectively on a final report to be distributed to the media and appropriate organizations. Delegates should be flexible, and easy going in difficult travel settings, (e.g. La Paz is located at a very high altitude.)

The anticipated cost of the Delegation is $1700* including RT travel from Miami to La Paz, hotel and in country travel. It will include some but not all meals.

Travel within Bolivia should include La Paz, Sucre and Lake Titicaca. The Delegation will have an in-country guide and some interpreter services; however, Spanish-speaking delegates are particularly encouraged to attend.

\ TOTAL COST TBD-CURRENT ESTIMATE BASED ON AIR FARES AS OF AUGUST 2006; A DEPOSIT OF $1000.00 WILL BE DUE NOVEMBER 15, 2006*

PLEASE RETURN APPLICATION BY OCTOBER 28, 2006 BY E-MAIL OR US MAIL TO: Linda Friedman Ramirez, Suite 900, 150 Second Avenue North, St. Petersburg, Florida 33701; lfr@spanishlaw.com
